

Very important information

In order to protect the sole purpose of the IWF Masters, namely to organize masters Olympic weightlifting championships, the IWF Masters committee has to apply the following:

Note that an athlete and/or accompany person, when received a visa, cannot remain for personal/political/religion/war etc.. in Canada.

Any visa applicant using IWF masters events to leave his/her country for his/her own reason, will be banned from all future IWF masters events.

The IWF Masters is a non- profit, non-political organization under the law of the international Olympic committee.
